Day two started with most skippers opting for “C” but soon changed down to “C2”, it wasn’t long for the “C3” to appear and for those without these small rigs, scissors appeared cutting “C2” down to suit the conditions, most skippers experienced control or electrical issues and at times the fleet was reduced to six and on one occasion down to five, the breeze was piping in at 25 knots with shooters up to 30 knots and by race nineteen the fleet was down to five with some races having four finishers.
